lished by Permission of the Author, and with many Corrections from the Collation of dif-

Author attempted a Plan entirely new and original, and hath produced a Performance, which far exceeds in Method, Copiousness of Thought, Liberty of Sentiment, and Per-spicuity of Judgment, all that have before written on this Subject; so that the Execution of this Work hath gained him universal Approbation, and lasting Reputation among all the Friends to the Art of Healing.

The TORIES CREED.

I BELIEVE in my heart, and confess with my mouth, that every Monarch from Nimrod, king of Babylon, to Lewis XVI of France, (by whatever means he gained the crown) immediately upon obtaining the sovereignty, commenced the master, and unlimited controller, of every person residing within his domain; and that in any wife to resist such their authority, would be worse than witchcraft theft, or perjury.

II. I unteigiously think that opposition of state ministers, is the unpardonable sin.

III. I most firmly believe, and willingly subscribe all the arguments and positions, that the Jesuits (those enlightened advocates for passive obedience) have ever maintained or published.

IV. I fully acquiesce in the Eastern mode of administration, and am confident, that the Ottoman and Persian courts, are perfect patterns of government.

V. I am seriously of opinion, that the subjects of the King of France, the Danes, face the surrender of their Liberties, and the Farmers within the Patrimony of St.

Peter, are the happiest people upon earth.

VI. I think it evident to a demonstration, that the inhabitants of Great Britain and North-America, are miserable, only because they are free.

VII. I am clear, that in nothing the in-considerateness and blindness of weak morals, is more conspicuous, than in the opposition the Americans make to British taxation; since it is evident, from the foregoing propositions, that the more abject their state, and fixed their dependence, the more firmly true happiness, and every social gratification is infused to them.

And lastly, I pledge myself to my betters, to live and die in the firm belief of the above-recited articles; and on no consideration whatever, to relax in the least iota;—that I will argue, write, and lie for this best of causes in which I am embarked;—that I will quench every spark of charity for all and every person that refuses to think exactly as I do;—and that my most fervent endeavours shall be exerted, to banish that baneful harpy, Liberty, from the face of the earth forever.

MR. HOLT.

I BEG leave to ask the Public the following questions through the channel of your paper, viz

Whether, if a person receives a letter from Patapago, which he thinks the good of his country requires to be published, the laws of Christianity or of common honesty, will justify that person in publishing that letter as coming from Annapolis?

Whether such conduct in a Clergyman is not worse than in a person of a more private character and inferior station?

SPECTATOR.

ANTIGUA, January 25.

We have received the following melancholy account of a storm which happened at Madeira, by Capt George Keys, just arrived here, and whose ship was lost in it. On the 8th of December last the gale came on, which obliged all the shipping then in the bay to put out to sea, among which a large Dutch ship bound for Surinam, was drove with the whole crew, in number 15, perished.

The Peggy and Betty, from Maryland,

Capt. Lewis, ship lost, the crew saved. A Danish ship, Capt. Bee, the vessel lost, 14 hands, and one woman passenger perished, the Captain being ashore, his life was saved.

Two Portuguese vessels, the commanders sad crews leaving them in the beginning of the gale, saved their lives, the vessels totally lost. Capt. Stewport of the ship Dawkins, from London for Jamaica, was the only vessel that rode out the storm, having parted one cable, and the other near going, when the dreadful tempest abated. So terrible and tremendous a gale has never been known, in the memory of the eldest man living in Madeira.

Extract of the Votes and Proceedings of the General Assembly of the Colony of New-York.

Dis Veneris, 10 ho. A. M. 3d March 1775.

THE order of the day being read, the House resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, upon the report of the Committee appointed to prepare a state of the grievances of this Colony, which report is in the words following, viz.

1st. Resolved. That it is the opinion of this Committee, that the act of the 6th Geo. III.

Chap. 12, entitled, "An act for the better securing the dependency of his Majesty's dominions in America, upon the crown and parliament of Great Britain, declaring the right of parliament to bind the Colonies in all cases whatsoever;—is a Grievance.

A motion was then made by Col. Schuyler, in the words following, viz.

Mr. Chairman,

I move, that the act of 4th Geo. III.

Chap. 15, so far as it imposes duties for the purpose of raising a revenue in America;—

extends the Admiralty courts beyond their ancient limits;—deprives his Majesty's American subjects of trial by jury;—authorizes the judges certificates to indemnify the prosecutor from damages that he might otherwise be liable to, and holds up an injurious discrimination between the subjects in Great Britain, and those in America;—is a grievance.

Mr. De Lancey then moved, that the previous question be first put, whether the question upon that part of Col. Schuyler's motion, which is comprehended in the following words, that is to say, "so far as it imposes duties for the purpose of raising a revenue in America," be now put? and debates arising thereon, and the said previous question being accordingly put, it was carried in the affirmative, in manner following, viz.

For the Affirmative. Col. Schuyler, Mr.

Brinkerhoff, Mr. Gale, Mr. Kiffam, Mr.

Clinton, Mr. Billopp, Mr. Nicoll

For the Negative. Mr. De Lancey, Mr.

Wilkins.

The question being then put, on Colonel Schuyler's motion, it was carried in the Affirmative, and thereupon it was,

2d Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Committee, that the aforesaid act of 4th

Geo. III. Chap. 15, so far as it imposes duties for the purpose of raising a revenue in America—extends the Admiralty courts beyond their ancient limits;—deprives his Majesty's American subjects of trial by jury—authorizes the judges certificates to indemnify the prosecutor from damages that he might otherwise be liable to, and holds up an injurious discrimination between the subjects in Great Britain and those in America, is a Grievance.

Mr. De Lancey then made a motion in the words following, viz.

Mr. Chairman,

I move that the opinion of this Committee be taken, Whether his Majesty and the parliament of Great Britain, have a right to regulate the trade of the Colonies, and to lay duties on articles that are imported directly into the Colonies, from any foreign country or plantation, which may interfere with the Products or manufactures of Great Britain, or any other parts of his Majesty's dominions?

Mr. Clinton then moved, that the previous question be first put, Whether the question upon Mr. De Lancey's motion be now put? And debates arising thereon, and the said previous question being accordingly put, it was carried in the Affirmative, in manner, viz.

For the Affirmative. Mr. Billopp, Mr.

Wilkins, Mr. Gale, Mr. Kiffam, Mr. Nicoll,

Mr. Rapalje, Mr. Brinckerhoff, Mr. De-

Lancey.

For the Negative. Col. Schuyler, Mr.

Clinton.

The question being then accordingly put; on Mr. De Lancey's motion, it was carried in the affirmative, and thereupon it was,

3d, Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Committee, that his Majesty and the parliament of Great Britain, have a right to re-

duties on articles that are imported directly into this Colony from any foreign country or plantation, which may interfere with the products or manufactures of Great-Britain, or any other parts of his Majesty's dominions.

Colonel Schuyler, then made a motion in the following words, viz.

Mr. Chairman,

I move the following, in addition to the preceding resolution, to wit, "Excluding every idea of taxation, internal or external, for the purpose of raising a revenue on the subjects in America, without their consent."

Mr. Billopp, then moved, that the previous question be first put, whether the question upon the said

The act of 14th Geo. iii, Chap. 45, entitled, "An act for the better regulating the government of the province of the Massachusetts Bay, in New-England; being read,

NEW YORK, March 16.

In our last, we gave a short account of the proceedings of this city and county, on Monday the 6th instant, when, by a very great majority, the following mode of proceeding was affirmed to, viz.—That the General Committee should nominate eleven persons, to be on Wednesday the 15th proposed to the choice of the Freeman and Freeholders, as Deputies, to meet, on the 20th of April, such Deputies as the other counties might elect, and join with them, for the sole purpose of appointing, out of their body, Delegates for the next General Congress, agreeable to the recommendation of the last. Accordingly, the Committee nominated the following persons, viz—

Philip Livingston, Francis Lewis, John Jay, Abraham Walton, James Duane, Abraham Brainer, John Altop, Alexander M'Dougall, Isaac Low, Leonard L'Esperance, Isaac Roosevelt.

From the time of the nomination, every artifice was used, (by the same party who have constantly exerted their utmost abilities, to obstruct and disconcert every measure of opposition to the tyrannical act of the British ministry.) in order to prevent the election of the Deputies, nominated by the Committee, and to frustrate the design of a Provincial Congress, and of sending Delegates, (at least with full powers from the whole province) to the next General Congress. Before the day of election, a great number of pieces were published on both sides; full of artifice and specious pretences on the ministerial part, and of sound weighty argument on the other. Between the two, the argument, and the views of each party, were pretty well understood at the day of election, when the votes of the Freeman and Freeholders were fairly taken, as follows, viz.

| For the Deputies. | Against them. |
|--------------------|---------------|
| North do. 66 | 26 |
| East do. 99 | 22 |
| South do. 43 | 23 |
| West do. 213 | 23 |
| Dock do. 52 | 33 |
| Montgomery do. 228 | 27 |

Besides great numbers of the majority, who finding their votes not wanted, did not vote. It is hoped the transactions of this day, will, in some measure, restore the generality of the people to the good opinion and esteem of the neighbouring colonies.

Last Night our general committee appointed a sub-committee, to draw up and report at the next stated meeting, a state of the trade, relative to the landing of goods out of the British.

[The extreme hurry of business this week, occasioned by the election yesterday, of Deputies for this city and county, to meet Deputies from the other Counties, in Provincial Congress, has obliged us to defer a great number of pieces intended for this paper, and almost all the articles of news from London and elsewhere. Among the pieces left out, are the following, viz—The proceedings and resolutions of the Committee of Observation of the townships of Morris and Mendam, in Morris County.

On the funeral of the Tea, signed an Anti Congress-man—A Vindication of Messrs. Smith Richards and James Vanduyck, from the Aspersions thrown on them in Mr. Rivington's last paper, under the signature William Cunningham and John Hill, &c. all which will be published as soon as possible. The news from London, is generally favourable to America—the proceedings of the late Congress are highly applauded in England, by all ranks from the highest to the lowest—the nation in general, turning fast to favour America—and the ministry at their wits end. We shall endeavour next Week to atone for our defect in this.]

Committee Chamber 8th March, 1775. ORDERED, That Philip Livingston and John Jay, Esquires, be a Committee, to wait on Mr. James Rivington, and request of him to acquaint this Committee, by whose information, or by what authority he published the following paragraph in his Gazetteer of second March, 1775, viz.

"Last Monday the Committee of Observation met, it was proposed, that they should nominate Delegates to the Continental Congress for the approbation of this city and county, but being opposed, the final determination of the Committee was deferred until the next meeting."

The said paragraph being entirely and wholly false and groundless; and also to inform Mr. Rivington, that in printing the notice of this Committee of the 27th February 1775, respecting the Non consumption of India Tea, being then soon to take place, it is inserted Non Importation, instead of Non Consumption, and desire him to correct the mistake in his next papers, and that the said Committee do make their report at their meeting.

Committee Chamber, 13th March, 1775. Mr. Chairman, IN pursuance of an order of this Committee of the 8th instant, we waited upon Mr. Rivington, and requested of him to acquaint this Committee, by whose information, or by what authority he published the paragraph mentioned in the said order in his Gazetteer of the 2d instant.—Mr. Rivington told us, he published it from common report, but would be more careful for the future, and was willing to contradict it.—The error Mr. Rivington committed in printing the notice of this Committee of the 27th February 1775, respecting the Non Consumption of India Tea being then soon to take place, he has corrected, PHIL. LIVINGSTON. JOHN JAY. RESOLVED, That common report is not sufficient authority for any Printer in this city to publish any matters as facts, relative to this Committee, and tending to expose them to the resentment of their constituents and the odium of the Colonies, for that the transgressions of this Committee are not kept secret, and any person may, with ease, know the truth of such reports, by applying to any of the members of the Committee who are numerous, and to be found in almost every part of the city.

ORDERED, That the foregoing order, report, and resolve be forthwith printed in all the papers.

At a Court of Chancery held for the Province of New York, at the City Hall, in the City of New York, on Thursday the sixth Day of March, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-five, the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the State of Great-Britain, Prince, and Island, King, Defendant of the Faith, and so forth.

PRESENT. The Honourable James Janney, Jun. Esq. Master of His Excellency William Franklin, Esq. against George Croghan. WHEREAS the above complainant, doth not have his bill of complaint against the defendant, setting forth among other things in substance, that the said defendant by certain indentures of lease and release, bearing date respectively the ninth and tenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy, did mortgage in fee simple the complainant, all that certain tract of land, containing forty thousand acres, then situate in the county of Albany; but now in the county of Tryon, being part of a tract of one hundred thousand acres of land on the north side of Mohawk's river, granted to the said George Croghan, and ninety nine other persons, by His Majesty's letters patent under the great seal of the province of New York, bearing date the thirtieth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty nine; which same mortgage premises were by the said indentures of release, made redeemable upon payment of the sum of one thousand eight hundred pounds current lawful money, of the province of New-Jersey, equal to the sum of one thousand nine hundred and fifty pounds lawful money of the province of New York, heretofore lent by the said complainant to the said defendant, with lawful interest; and that the condition, or proviso of the said mortgage, remains as yet unperformed; and therefore the complainant prays by his said bill, that the equity of redemption of the said defendant, and of those claiming under him, may be foreclosed, and that the premises may be sold for the payment of the complainant. AND WHEREAS it appears from the deposition of John Lawrence of the city of New York, Attorney at Law, that the complainant's said bill was filed in this Court on the twelfth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy four; and that a subpoena issued out of this Court on that day, commanding the defendant to appear here on the twenty seventh day of January, in the year last aforesaid, to answer the said bill. That the defendant at that time made all due inquiry to find the said defendant, in order to serve him with the said subpoena; but was not able to do so. That since the filing the said subpoena, this defendant has made all due inquiry after the said defendant, that he might be served with a subpoena, to answer the complainant's bill; but that his endeavours have proved altogether fruitless. That the defendant hath been credibly informed (and which he believes to be the truth) that the defendant hath formerly lived in that part of this province called the county of Tryon. That he afterwards removed from thence to, or near to Fort Pitt, out of this province, where he lived at the time when the aforesaid subpoena issued and the defendant verily believes he has continued his residence there since. It is THEREFORE ordered on motion of Mr. Duane, of counsel for the complainant, that the said defendant appear in this Court, to answer the complainant's said bill of complaint, on or before the twelfth day of April next, or in default thereof, that the said bill be taken pro confesso.

WILLIAM SMITH, ABRAHAM LOFT, New-York, 8th March, 1775.

POET'S CORNER.

Address to a CANDLE.
 TAPER! thy brightness wastes thy form to fast,
 That shining thus, thy night will be thy last:
 Tho' narrow limits thy short date confine, Compar'd to infinite, what more is mine?
 This night must end thy being, and before,
 To-morrow's dawn, my life may be no more!
 Both in life's morn, with gayest lustre shine,
 And as the night advances both decline.
 Both in the night seem closely to be link'd, And after one short blaze, are both extinct!
 Our lives, our periods, in both agree;— Then, what's the difference here 'twixt thee and me?

To be SOLD,
 A valuable tract of land, lying in the township of Knowlton, in the county of Suffolk and province of New Jersey, containing 1146 acres, being part of a tract of 1548 acres, conveyed by Samuel and James Bunting, to John Finch, Esq; of Great Britain, of which 202 acres have been sold, to Archibald Stinson, who now lives thereon; and 200 acres to John Blair, now occupied by two tenants.—There are five improved farms on this tract—the soil is fertile and excellent for wheat and other grain—considerable part of the tract is well timber'd, and a sufficient quantity of it is meadow land—it lies contiguous to a convenient landing on the River Delaware, from whence all produce is readily conveyed to Philadelphia, and wheat at the reasonable price of six pence per bushel.—Its vicinity to the flourishing Moravian settlements, on Beaver Rivers, which affords a market for all its produce, the rapid settlement made in Suffolk county, and in the neighbourhood of this tract, within a few years past, and the improvements already made thereon, must necessarily make it the more desirable.
 If a purchaser of the whole tract should not appear before May next, it will then be run into convenient lots for farms of about 200 acres each—Good bonds will be taken for the whole, or part of the purchase money, as may suit the purchaser.
 For terms, and further particulars, apply to the Rev. Mr. Ogden, at Newtown, in said county of Suffolk, to Lewis Ogden, Esq; attorney at Law, in Newark; or to the subscriber in New York, who will give a good title for the said lands.

BAY RICHMOND.

His pedigree is as follows:
 Richmond, Yorkshire, Sept. 14, 1774.
 "I certify, that the bay colt which Mr. John Hutchinson purchased of Sir Lawrence Dundas, at Bath, was bred by me, and was got by Barbra Blank, out of my mare Disco, that won ten Fifty Pound prizes, or upwards, and which colt was three years old at May day last."
 THOMAS CORNFORTH.

Attridge, Yorkshire, Sept. 10, 1774.
 "I do hereby certify, that the bay mare Disco, the property of Thomas Cornforth, Esq; was bred by me, and was own sister to my mare, called Virgin, and my colt Miracle, being got by Chawcing (own brother to Mr. Fenwick's Match'em) the Dam of Virgin, Miracle and Disco, was also the Dam of Lord Bolinbroke's Conundrum (afterwards Mr. Pigot's) and Banishes, Mr. Cornforth's Majima, my Mare's Riddle, Miss Times, Mr. Foley's Pumpkin, and my Filley called Maiden, all which were got by Match'em; Their dam was got by Squirt, sire of Mafk and Syphon, their grandam by Mogul, (own brother to Babiam's) great grandam by Bay Bolton, great grandam by Mr. Pullin's Cheestnut Arabian, (which mare was the grandam of the Bolton (Sterling) great great grandam by Rockwood, great great great grandam by Butler."
 Witness my hand, JOHN PRATT.
 This horse was lately imported from Yorkshire: He is near fifteen hands high, of great strength and bone, rising four years old, and performs all actions with vast ease and gracefulness, and in figure equals the finest horse ever imported to this province.
 Good graft for mares, and the greatest care taken of them.

TO COVER also, at the same place, at two guineas a mare, and a dollar the servant, the famous horse GOLDEN FARMER.

He is a strong beautiful bay, well made, full fifteen hands and an inch high, three years old, and free from all blemishes: he was got by the noted horse bold Hercules, who is remarkable for getting famous hunters; he was got by a son of Snake, his dam by his price the Duke of Bolton's Little John, and Little John by Old Partner, out of a bay Bolton mare. Golden Farmer's dam is a stout grand hunting mare, is allowed, by good judges, to be one of the best brood mares in Yorkshire and her breed has proved it there, in these capital stallions out of her, one of which has been proved, and one thousand guineas have been frequently refused for him. Golden Farmer is the property, and was bred by Mr. John Hutchinson. This is a true pedigree, as witness our hands.
 Capt. JOHN HUTCHINSON, JAMES SADLER.

As witness my hand,
 JOHN HUTCHINSON.
 Good graft for mares, on moderate terms, and proper care. The money to be paid when the mares are covered, or before taken away.—Troy is only seven miles distant from Morris Town, fifteen from Springfield, and twenty-one from Elizabeth Town. 77 80

Sold also by Joseph Cruikshank, Printer, in Market Street, between Second & Third Streets, and by Isaac Collins, Printer, in Burlington, Hugh Gaine and John Holt, Printers, in New York, and by Joseph Dunkley, Painter and Glazier, opposite the Methodist Meeting House.

THE Demand for this Parchment being much increased of late, has encouraged said Wood to extend his Works, so that he now expects to be able to supply his Custom ofore, without Fear of a Disappointment.

TWO DOLLARS Reward,

Will be paid for bringing home A RUN-AWAY apprentice lad, named JAMES WINTERBOTTOM, who is about 20 years of age, 5 feet high, thin, small face, pale complexion, and reddish hair; was born in Liverpool, speaks good English, but stutters much in his speech, and is by trade a Chimney Sweeper. He had on when he went away, a light coloured cloth coat, with polished steel buttons; a red plush waistcoat, and new dark blue breeches. If any person who takes him away, captures, cap tured, or restores him, so that the subscriber gets him again, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges; and any person concerned in carrying him away, or helping him from his master, may depend upon a legal prosecution, by HERMAN ZEDTOWITZ.

RUN AWAY from the subscriber on the 26th of February last, an Irish ser vant boy, named Thomas Tolton, about 16 years of age, has a long face and nose, and a down look; came from the county of Tyrone, with Captain Chassey; had on a half worn hat, a wilton coat, a broad cloth jacket, without sleeves, a pair of breeches of the same, a white shirt, a light pair of knit woolen stockings, a pair of single sole shoes, and plated buckles. It is suspected that he was deluded away by one of Mr. Zedwitz's sweepers, who ran away at the same time; and perhaps they are gone towards Philadelphia, as he several times said that he had a brother in Pennsylvania.
Whoever takes up the said runaway, shall have Five Dollars reward, and all reasona ble charges, paid by JOHN WETZEL, Baker, in Bayard Street.

P. S. Since inserting the foregoing, intelligence has been received, that the above runaways went off in a boat belonging to Mr. Baker, which they stole from the Exchange dock.

WE hear from Perth Amboy, in New-Jersey, that a certain Thomas Curran, was, a few days ago, committed to the common goal of that City, on ac count, for propagating a most false, fraudulent, and im probable report, of a certain Gentleman in high office, in that province: Which report, the said Curran con fessed, upon his apprehension, to be true to its full extent, he just published it.—A free Maledictio filius, named Nathaniel Chase, is also committed to the goal of New-Jersey, in the said Province, for having con spired with the said Curran, in the invention of the same wicked, calumnious, and villainous story. 78 81

MARY DECAMP,
HAVING lately been advertised in the public news-papers, as having eloped from her hus band, Morris Decamp, of Elizabeth Town, whereby the public would naturally be led to conclude, that she had in some respect or other misbehaved to her said husband. Therefore, in vindication of her innocent character, she thinks herself obliged to declare, that tho' in marrying him, she dishonoured all her friends, and always behaved as a faithful and dutiful wife to him; yet she has experienced from him continual ill usage of the worst kind; that for a cri minal attempt upon a young woman, he was obliged to leave the place, and she was reduced to the ne cessity of returning to her mother.—That when the affair was made up, and she was prevailed on, to live with him again, by his low commerce with other women, he contracted and designedly com municated to her, a loathsome disease: which greatly endangered her life, and from which she with great difficulty recovered.—Since which, not thinking herself safe with him, she has continued with her mother; and her husband has abandoned, to avoid the payment of his debts.

To be sold on the premises, on Tuesday the fourth day of April next, at twelve of the clock at public vendue, if not before dis posed of at private sale.
